EL PACHECO

1959 - - VOLUME XX

Los Banos Union High School

Los Banos, California

Foreword

Our Spinning Wheel has woven a yarn, a yarn about the past year at Los Banos High. It has been a year filled with excitement and fun.

We have tried to recreate and bring alive again the memories that will come to mind each time we open the 1959 El Pacheco. Turn the page and follow the kittens as they unravel our ball of yarn.

Virginia M. Loftin
Dedication

The 1959 El Pacheco staff takes singular pleasure in dedicating this year book to you, Mrs. Virginia Loftin. Your spirit of magnanimity and devotedness to duty have impressed us during the past year. Your unshaken qualities of high standards and kindness have been a great influence on all of us.

For your justice and patient good humor we sincerely thank you.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved schoolmate, Dennis Paradiso.

Mr. Carlyle G. Loftin
District Superintendent

Mr. Sam Benidettino
Principal

The Board of Trustees and the school administrators devoted many hours of their time during this school year in studying the problems faced by the school district. There were many meetings with state officials and the school architects for the purpose of drawing up a proposed master plan for a new high school. The culmination was the presentation of the issues to the voters of the community in a bond election on May 19 to provide the necessary funds to build the proposed new high school.

An intensive sales campaign by the Sales Staff resulted in a record sale and thus enabled the staff to produce the largest annual in the history of Los Banos High. For the first time, too, the annual will be personalized, each purchaser's name being printed on the cover.

The staff wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Robert Williams for the picture on the "In Memoriam" page. Also to the following organizations who contributed financially, the staff's thanks goes—C.S.F., F.F.A., F.H.A., G.A.A., Letermen's Society, and Mask and Cloak.

The Tiger Rag, under the editorship of Toni LaSalvia, had a new look this year, with the printing being done at the West Side Printers. This permitted the use of photographs and more cartoons. Features of the paper included the fine sports articles by Charles Peluso, sports editor; and the "Stuff and Nonsense" column by Jeanette Hanna.

The eight energetic promnerettes and yell leaders enlivened games and rallies with their yells and colorful routines. During the year they developed many new ideas to bolster the spirit of our rooting sections and our teams.

Rallies

During the football season skits presented by the various classes, and colorful rally badges worn by class members added much to the spirit. The senior skit satirized a radio interview with Coach Houston, played by Jud Davidson. The program was sponsored by an undertaking parlor, and was replete with spine-chilling singing commercials. The Junior skit featured a group of girls demonstrating their gridiron ability, and the sophomores portrayed the history of cheer-leading from caveman days to the present.

Tigers In Action

In the first league game with Escalon, the case of the extra point blues began. The fine running of Stan McConnell and the pass catching of Larry Toscano proved to no avail as three touchdowns scored by this pair were called back. The Patterson game was no different. Los Banos couldn't produce enough extra points to win. The Ceres game was a very fine one played in Ceres, with the Tigers holding the mighty Ceres team scoreless until the last three minutes. The defensive line led by big Francis Ragghianti, David Piccinini, and Ron Hamilton stopped the Ceres "T" formation cold. Finally Los Banos hit the winning road again with their 20-0 win over Livingston. Dave Bonillas was the big ball carrier this night as he passed and ran to all the team's scores. The league season ended with the league champions, Sonora, handing the Tigers their worst defeat of the season.

Perhaps the high point of the season was the 19-19 tie with the Dos Palos Varsity. The young, green Tigers rose to the traditional occasion and came off the field with a tie, which was the first time in some years that the Tigers have come that close to winning the Big One.

Individual honors going to Varsity players included the naming of David Bonillas to the All League First Team, with second string places going to Jud Davidson, Francis Ragghianti, and Eddie Gomes. Frank Sigarroa and Larry Toscano received honorable mention. Francis Ragghianti and David Bonillas were named to the All Central California First Team.

BANBEE SEASON RECORD

After two false starts because of the failure of Galt and Gustine to field teams, the 1958-59 Banbee season got under way when the team traveled to Merced, where they played a 0-0 tie with Merced. Our traditional rivals, Dos Palos, won by a score of 19-0.

The league season started with a 6-6 tie with Escalon. In the next league game with Patterson, one of the most spectacular plays of our season occurred when Roy Cornelius on an off-tackle play raced 92 yards to a touchdown. The Banbees won this contest 18-7. The Ceres game was by far the best ballgame played by the Banbees. They outplayed the Bullpups in every department except the score, which ended 12-7 in favor of Ceres. The Banbees won the Livingston contest by a score of 12-0 in a game marked by the runback of a pass interception by Daniel Paradiso for about 68 yards. In the final league game against Sonora, the Banbees went down to defeat 45-6.

All in all the season was a good one. At the end of the season, the team elected Don Colbert and Gary Tosta, the two seniors on the team, co-captains.

The Varsity, which was the shortest team in memory, the tallest player being 5 feet 11, improved as the season progressed, and won the last four league games in a row. Terrific defensive play was the trademark of the team, and they finished the season with the best defensive record in the league. Practice wins were scored over Dos Palos, Merced, Gustine, and Newman. The season record was 12 wins and 9 losses.

"B" Basketball

The only senior on the team was Don Colbert, who was high scorer for the season with 217 points. Best rebounder was Tom DeGregori, with 206 rebounds.

Although we were the smallest team in the league in height, we outplayed and outrebounded most every other team. The squad included one senior, three juniors, five sophomores, and nine freshmen. With the number of underclassmen coming back next year, we should be a threat for the championship of the new conference we will be in.

The D team, winning its fourth straight championship, extended its victory string to 40 games without a loss. Double wins were scored over Dos Palos, Chowchilla, Merced, Livingston, and Patterson. Most of the games this year were won by the narrowest of margins and the squad worked hard for their success.

Summer School

For the first time in the history of our school, a six-weeks' summer session was held last year from June 23 to August 1. Classes were offered in zoology, general mathematics, trigonometry, personal typing, arts and crafts, speech, and composition. Approximately 110 students were enrolled in the classes, which met from 8 to 12 noon Monday through Friday. On this page are shown students engaged in typical class activities in zoology, trigonometry, personal typing, speech, and arts and crafts.

Carol-

Well we are now seniors, I hope, and we have really had a lot of fun. I ~~am~~ know we will always be good friends. I hope you never forget the fun we had. I know we will have much more in the future. If I get married this summer it will make no difference to our friendship. Just because I'm married doesn't mean I'm old and square. We can have fun if you and Gloria and your guys come over often. We can have our private parties and really raise hell. We won't have to worry about trouble because we're all too sweet. HAHAA.

Seriously - I know you are a swell girl and will always be so. Stay as sweet as you are and every thing good will come to you. I mean this very sincerely.

P.S. Take real good care of Frenchy. Your true friend always.

Carolyn,

See its been fun this year. Last year we met Darrell and Ronnie and we had ever so much fun. Well we still think about them even though we broke up. A few months ago we met these two college boys, Harry Santos and Frenchy Frusetti. So far we have had a blast. I hope we keep on having fun with them. All through the year we have had sad and happy moments, and we pulled through all of them. We will keep on having ups and downs and keep on pulling through them. I know we will always be friends because we are of the same kind (goofy) Haha I can't say hope to see a lot of you next year because we practically live with each other. So I just have to wish you the Best of luck with Ronnie and Frenchy. Be good because if you don't I won't.

Always
